GENERAL MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

Members must refer to green buildings and the components used in their construction exclusively as those buildings/components that fulfil the GBCUG Standard criteria, as set out by the Green Building Council organisation. Turnover applies to all UG activities of the organisation . For multi-national companies, this will be clarified by using the denomination Name (UG).

GBCUG members will automatically be registered and their details shared with the Green building council association i GBCUG members will appear on our website in our members' directory. Individual members may choose to opt out.

Membership applies to the organisation registered; this name will be used on all GBCUG materials. If Green building council activities are undertaken by a subsidiary company or division, these can be registered in their own name, but not in the name of the parent company.

Individual membership is available to employees of a larger company by agreement; individual members will appear in our members' directory under their own name. The listing will not include a company logo or web link.

As regards payment GBCUG bank and account details are as follows:

Account: Green Building Council Uganda
Bank: Stanbic Bank (U) Limited
